
Merle Lavern Elwick

Merle Lavern Elwick

Polk City

Merle Elwick, 75, died February 4, 2013 at Granger Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. Burial of his cremated remains will be at a later date.

Merle was born August 5, 1937 to Leonard and Margaret (Holland) Elwick. He graduated from Radcliffe High School. He was a truck driver and later worked at the DOT and the Donnley Corp. He moved to Polk City and enjoyed feeding and watching the birds by his apartment. He liked his vehicles and his tools.

He is survived by his sisters, Lois (Duane) Grove of Jewell, IA; Elizabeth (John) Egan of Huxley; brother, Lowell (Norma) Elwick of Ames; and many nieces, nephews and cousins.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and one brother, Loren Gene Elwick, who died in infancy.

Arrangements handled by The Cremation Society of Iowa.

Published in Des Moines Register on February 7, 2013
