I am so sorry for the loss of Laura. May God comfort you during this time of grieving and give you peace, strength, and hope. (2 Corinthians 1:3,4)

Laura had been a friend for a number of years, but it wasn't until our her "Flame" and my "Annie" were in obedience class together that we got to know each other well. Our dogs got along well and so did we. About four years ago, and every year since, we roomed together for an agility trial that was held in December in Cedar Rapids. Boy did we accumulate some scary hotel adventures! More recently we traveled to trials together by motor home. I can't even express how much these times meant to me and how much she will be missed. A more kind and generous soul has never graced the earth. Miss you dearly every day my friend. My only regret is that I have no photos of us together, just the dogs. </3

Remember my sentimental friend, a heart is not judged by how much you love, but by how much you are loved by others. Laura's heart was filled with love for others and I'm sure that others loved her just as much. Laura is the best friend anyone could want and those who call her Friend are truly blessed. Her kindness and compassion for others and animals has no comparison. I feel extremely lucky to have Laura for a friend, she had a way of bringing out the best in a person, and she did that for me. You will be truly missed by all those that know you and love you. ps If you see Wally and Webster, give them a hug and a treat for me.

Laura, how can words express the deep sorrow I am feeling. You were the sister I never had. Your heart and courage have been an inspiration to us all. You never gave up on your goal to earn Flame's agility Championship, no matter how bad you were feeling, and I will be forever grateful that I was there the day it happened. You taught me so much about living! The most valuable lesson of all, to make sure to tell the people who are special to you that you love them, because you never know when they will be gone. I am so grateful for that and am so glad I was able to tell you one last time, "I love you Laura"!

Laura - We met because of our shared passions for cardigan w. corgis and agility. It was fun meeting up with you and Flame at the Ames trials and the Cardigan Nationals. I will always be moved when I remember your courage and good spirit - running your heart out with Flame to finish his PACH. Even though we met only a few times, I feel that I have lost a long time friend. You are an inspiration to us all. Run free, lovely lady! Cynthia Lord, Belleville, WI
