Amy Staggs-Fontana, 50, completed her journey after a long and courageous battle with brain cancer on November 19, 2015, at Mercy Hospice in Johnston, IA. A memorial visitation will be held on Monday, November 23, 2015 from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm at the Ankeny Funeral Home (1510 W. First St., Ankeny, IA 50023) A Celebration of her life will be held at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, November 24, 2015 at First Family Church (317 SE Magazine Rd, Ankeny, IA 50021). A burial will be held at 2:00 pm in the Roland Cemetery located in Roland Iowa. The family requests that those in attendance dress in casual attire.

Amy was born October 7, 1965 in Ottumwa, Iowa to Dan and Carol (Holland) Staggs. She graduated in 1984 from Ottumwa High School. She went on to earn her Bachelor's Degree from University of Northern Iowa in 1988.

Amy enjoyed playing tennis, she learned the game of tennis under the guidance of her father, and was a member of the All-State team in 1984. She was a football fan, supporting the Iowa State Cyclones, her love of the game came from her admiration for Peyton Manning. She loved to dance, and spend time hunting for antique treasures. She had an amazing sense of humor, and truly loved to laugh. Her greatest love was the time she had with friends and family, she will be deeply missed by those who knew her.

Amy is survived by her husband; Mike Fontana, parents; Dan and Carol of Ottumwa, daughter; Natalie of Ames, IA, step children; Matt and Emily both of Ankeny, IA, brothers; Jeff (Shannon) of Sutherland, NE, their children Taylor and Samantha, Gregg (Sherri) of Oostburg, WI, their sons Jack and Josh.

Amy was preceded in death by her grandparents; Overt and Juella Holland, and Jim and Genieve Neff.

Memorial contributions may be directed towards the family.
