Amanda

My Grandpa has always been my Best Friend. The best man you could ever meet. Not a mean bone in his body. Growing up he was like another Father to us, from picking us up from school when we were sick to attending any important event we had. We learned a lot about the war from him, he was always telling stories from his war days. He got us active in the American Legion Auxiliary, and showed us the importance of supporting our country and the troops. He was a friend to everyone he met, just an all around fantastic man! I miss you and Love you so much! All My Love, Amanda Irene
