“ Myrna, Owen, Dean and families, Our hearts and love are with you all! Sylvia was very much a special lady, she even maintained her own beauty salon in her Milford Twp home for some 43 years. She was Milford's first woman to have her own business, and that record will be hard to beat! My brother, Art, spent many 'fun' hours at your home with Alan over the years while growing up, there were always special treats. And of course they were both a big part of Milford's good basketball years and the 2 Story County back to back Championships in 1956 and 1957. Our intensions were to be with you all today, but it didn't work. Yesterday, Dale and I were in NE Iowa, Garnavillo, I was a part of the final Celebration of Life Service to Honor Sandy Fiete. Two days and two special ladys!
Sylvia, Rest in Peace and God be with each of you till we all meet again.
Much Love, Milfordites, Jurine Borton Moore and Dale Hughes too.
